PSU STUDENTS TO HOLD RECOGNITION EVENT for Washougal Waterfront Project

On Thursday, May 8th from 5–7 p.m., the Portland State University Student Team will host an event to say 'thank you' to the community for its participation in the project entitled 'Washougal Waterfront: a Community Connected'.

At the Recognition Event, the students will reveal draft recommendations for the Waterfront Vision Plan based on research, survey results and input received throughout the engagement process.

"The community will be able to ask questions about the recommendations and provide one last bit of input before we finalize the Waterfront Vision Plan," explained Julia Metz, Engagement Coordinator.

When: Thursday, May 8th -- 5 to 7 p.m.

Where: Washougal Town Square
1700 Main Street, Washougal 98671

Refreshments will be provided by Downtown's Wildflour Cafe & Cupcakes.

This project has been a partnership among the Port of Camas–Washougal, City of Washougal, and the Portland State University Students from the Master of Urban and Regional Planning program.
