

Port Reveals 2015 Summer Concert Series Lineup

Washougal, Wash. – April 23, 2015 – The Port of Camas–Washougal today announced the lineup of crowd–pleasing performers for its Fourteenth Annual Riverside Concert Series:

 Saturday, July 4, 2015

6:00 to 7:30 pm: Sky Bound Blue Band – an exhilarating show with harmony–driven, foot–stomping, dig–deep–and–tell–the–story–in–your–bones kind of music!

8:30 to 10:00 pm: 5 Guys Named Moe – a slammin' 12–piece show band, fun to watch and dance to, patterned after the larger, visually creative bands of the 60's with horn sections and back–up vocalists.

10:00 pm: Fireworks – courtesy of the City of Washougal, and assisted by Mark Marine Service, Inc. launching fireworks from their barge.

 Saturday, August 15, 2015

6:00 to 7:00 pm: Rocket 88 – fun, imaginative and professional, a first class ensemble that plays country, swing, R&B, and more to rave reviews.

8:00 to 9:30 pm: Johnny Limbo and the Lugnuts – a popular local favorite returning for another year to perform 50's and 60's classic oldies with a Punch!

"As always, we'll have a variety of food vendors, games for the children, and a shuttle service to transport concert–goers between the parking lot and the concert venue," said David Ripp, Executive Director. "Each year, our goal is to put together family–friendly destination events that will attract locals and visitors, alike. We're pleased and excited to see the Riverside Concert Series continue to grow in popularity."
